

Project Summary Sheet

Project Name: Upland Recharge and Detention Basin Tracking No: 4020

Location: southern Cucamonga Cr., N&S of 19th Street County: San Bernadino

Project Sponsor: City of Upland

Point of Contact: Mike Thornton, PE

Co-applicant(s): NA

Assembly District: Senate District: NA

Project Description (including size): Acquisition of 28 acres as flood detention and recharge facility at toe of problematic alluvial fan. The system will consist of a 58 acre basin with an 8 acre floodway connecting to a 5 acre basin, which will detain flood flows, treat the water, recharge the basin, and connect regional trails.

Flood Benefits: Substantial benefits could accrue in the future to Cities of Upland, Ontario and ultimately, Chino.

Agricultural Benefits: N/A

Agricultural Land Conserved, acres, if any: N/A

Wildlife Benefits: Recreate riparian area in area where they are largely absent.

Wildlife Habitat Conserved, acres, if any: 71 acres

Total area conserved:.. min. 71 (some undevelopable to begin with)

Other Benefits : Could become significant demonstration/education project.

Total Cost: $ 41,998,340

FPCP Cost: $ 5,000,000

Funding Partners and Share of Cost:
(multiple)